

Information Collection Notice Students

"Ambrose Treacy College (the College) is part of Edmund Rice Education Australia (EREA), which is an organisation consisting of schools, entities and offices offering a Catholic education in the tradition of Blessed Edmund Rice." From time to time, information may be shared between EREA's member schools to enhance the support of students and families enrolled across the entity.

This Collection Notice explains in general terms how we protect the privacy of the personal information you provide when you are enrolling your child/ren or your child/ren is enrolled at the College. In reviewing this Collection Notice and providing us with your personal information, you consent to our collection, use and disclosure of that information in the manner set out below, unless you tell us otherwise.

1. The College collects personal information, including sensitive information about students and parents or guardians and family members before and during the course of a student's enrolment at the College. This may be in writing, on CCTV, or in the course of conversations. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the College to meet its educational, administrative and duty of care responsibilities to the student to enable them to take part in all the activities of the College.
2. Some of the information the College collects is to satisfy the College's legal obligations, particularly to enable the College to discharge its duty of care.
3. Laws governing or relating to the operation of a College require certain information to be collected and disclosed. These include relevant Education Acts and Public Health and Child Protection laws.
4. The College may request medical reports and health information about students from time to time to discharge its legal duty of care to the student and to other students and staff. This includes a student's asthma and anaphylaxis action plans, as well as any other health or medical information which is reasonably likely to impact on the College's ability to provide educational, first aid and related services.
5. A student's health and medical information will be disseminated and used within the College to best meet the College's duty of care responsibilities. This may include the use of photographs with health action plans to facilitate the identification of students who may be at heightened risk.

Health information about students is sensitive information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) under the Privacy Act 1988.

The College may disclose personal and sensitive information for administrative, educational and support purposes (or may permit the information to be directly collected by third parties). This may include to:

- government departments;
- third party service providers that provide online educational and assessment support services or applications (apps), which may include email and instant messaging;
- another College to facilitate the transfer of a student;
- medical practitioners, and people providing educational support and health services to the College, including specialist visiting teachers, sports coaches, volunteers, counsellors and providers of learning and assessment tools;
- assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority;
- people providing administrative and financial services to the College;
- anyone you authorise the College to disclose information to; and
- anyone to whom the College is required or authorised to disclose the information to by law, including under child protection laws.

Information Collection Notice Students

6. If this information is not provided to us, the College:
 - a. views this as an unacceptable risk and will not proceed with the enrolment OR
 - b. will not be able to fully discharge its duty of care to its students and staff.
7. The College will engage in fundraising activities from time to time. Information received from you may be used for these purposes. It may also be disclosed to its associated supporting groups (e.g. Parent & Friends Association, Parents Network and sporting and cultural support groups) who assist in the fundraising activities of the College. Your personal information may also be shared with the ATC Foundation after leaving the College. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.

If you do not wish the College to share your information to these groups, please email the College at admin@atc.qld.edu.au

8. The College may also use cloud computing service providers to store personal information (which may include sensitive information) on their servers in the 'cloud'. These servers may be, located in or outside Australia. This may mean that personal information may be stored or processed outside Australia. EREA's Privacy Policy contains further information about its use of cloud and other third-party service providers and any of their overseas locations.
9. The EREA Privacy Policy is also accessible via the College website or from the College office. The policy sets out how parents, guardians or students may seek access to, and correction of their personal information which the College has collected and holds. However, access may be refused in certain circumstances such as where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or may result in a breach of the College's duty of care to the student, or where students have provided information in confidence. Any refusal will be notified in writing with reasons if appropriate.
10. The EREA Privacy Policy also sets out how parents, guardians, students and their family can make a complaint about a breach of the APPs and how the complaint will be handled.
11. On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and similar news is published in College social media, Yearbook, Blog, magazines, on physical displays throughout the College and on our intranet. This may include photographs and videos of student activities such as sporting events, College camps and College excursions.

If you do not wish the College to publish information about your son, please email the College at admin@atc.qld.edu.au

The College will obtain separate permissions from the student's parent or guardian (and from the student if appropriate) prior to including such photographs or videos or other identifying material in our advertising and marketing materials.

12. If you provide the College with the personal information of others, such as other family members, doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the College and why, that they can request access to and correction of that information if they wish and to also refer them to the EREA Privacy Policy for further details about such requests and how the College otherwise handles personal information it collects and complaints it receives.
